Case No.: 25-cv-20609

PLUGINZ KEYCHAINS LLC and MIKE STRICKLIN,

Plaintiffs,

THE INDIVIDUALS, CORPORATIONS, LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES, PARTNERSHIPS, AND UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE A,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Pluginz Keychains LLC and Mike Stricklin (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby allege as follows against the individuals, corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, and unincorporated associations and foreign entities identified on Schedule A¹ (collectively, “Defendants”):

INTRODUCTION

1. This action has been filed by Plaintiffs to combat online infringers who trade upon Plaintiffs’ reputation and goodwill by selling and/or offering for sale products in connection with Plaintiffs’ registered Pluginz Keychains Trademarks, which are covered by U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 5,312,729, 5,370,972, and 5,370,973 (the “Pluginz Keychains Trademarks”). The registrations are valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect. True and correct copies of the federal trademark registration certificates for the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks are attached as

Exhibit 1.

2. This is also an action for patent infringement to combat e-commerce store operators who trade upon Plaintiffs' reputation and goodwill by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use, unauthorized and unlicensed products that infringe Plaintiffs' design patent, U.S. Patent No. D745,262S (the "Pluginz Keychains Patent"). The Pluginz Keychains Patent is valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect. Plaintiffs are the owners and lawful assignees of all right, title, and interest in and to the Pluginz Keychains Patent, which was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. A true and correct copy of the Pluginz Keychains Patent is attached as Exhibit 2.

3. Defendants are improperly advertising, marketing, and/or selling unauthorized and noncompliant products by reference to marks identical or substantially identical to the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks and/or that embody the design(s) depicted in the Pluginz Keychains Patent (the "Counterfeit Products").

4. The Defendants have created numerous fully interactive commercial Internet stores operating under the online marketplace accounts (the "Defendant Internet Stores") and using the account names identified in Schedule A (collectively, the "Defendants").

5. The Defendants design the online marketplace accounts to appear to be selling Plaintiffs' genuine Pluginz Keychains Products (the "Pluginz Keychains Products"), while selling inferior imitations of such products.

6. The Defendants' online marketplace accounts also share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the Counterfeit Products offered for sale, establishing a logical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences.

7. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal counterfeiting operation. Plaintiffs are forced to file this action to combat Defendants' infringement of the Plaintiffs' Trademarks and Patent, as well as to protect unknowing consumers from purchasing Counterfeit Products.

8. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiffs have been and continue to be irreparably damaged from the loss of their exclusivity of their intellectual property rights, as well as by and through consumer confusion, dilution, and tarnishment of their valuable trademarks, and, therefore, seek injunctive and monetary relief.

9. This Court has personal jurisdiction over each Defendant, in that each Defendant conducts significant business in Florida and in this Judicial District, and the acts and events giving rise to this lawsuit of which each Defendant stands accused were undertaken in Florida and in this Judicial District.

10. In addition, each Defendant has offered to sell and ship and/or sold and shipped Counterfeit Products into this Judicial District.

SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION

11. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the trademark infringement claim in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the patent infringement claims arising under the patent laws of the United States pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

PERSONAL JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. Personal jurisdiction exists over Defendants in this Judicial District pursuant to Florida Statutes §§ 48.193(1)(a)(1)–(2) and 48.193(1)(a)(6), or in the alternative, Fed. R. Civ. P.

4(k) because, upon information and belief, Defendants regularly conduct, transact, and/or solicit business in Florida and in this Judicial District, and/or derive substantial revenue from business transactions in Florida and in this Judicial District, and/or otherwise avail themselves of the privileges and protections of the laws of the State of Florida such that this Court's assertion of jurisdiction over Defendants does not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, and/or Defendants' illegal counterfeiting and counterfeit actions caused injury to Plaintiffs in Florida and in this Judicial District such that Defendants should reasonably expect such actions to have consequences in Florida and this judicial District, for example:

a. Upon information and belief, Defendants were and/or are systematically directing and/or targeting their business activities at consumers in the U.S., including those in Florida, in this Judicial District, through accounts with online marketplace platforms such as AliExpress, Amazon, DHgate, eBay, Etsy, Shein, Temu, and Walmart (collectively, the "Marketplace Platforms") as well as any and all as yet undiscovered accounts with additional online marketplace platforms held by or associated with Defendants, their respective officers, employees, agents, servants, and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them ("User Account(s)"), through which consumers in the U.S., including Florida (and more particularly, in this Judicial District), can view the one or more of Defendants' online marketplace accounts that each Defendant operates ("Defendant Internet Stores"), uses to communicate with Defendants regarding their listings for Counterfeit Products (as defined infra), and uses to place orders for, receive invoices for, and purchase Counterfeit Products for delivery in the United States, including Florida (and more particularly, in this Judicial District), as a means for establishing regular business with the United States, including Florida (and more particularly, in this Judicial District).

b. Upon information and belief, Defendants have transacted business with consumers located in the United States, including Florida (and more particularly, in this Judicial District), for the sale and shipment of Counterfeit Products.

13. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(2) and 1400 because Defendants have committed acts of trademark and/or patent infringement in this Judicial District and do substantial business in the Judicial District.

17. Since at least 2014, the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks are and have been the subject of substantial and continuous marketing and promotion by Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs have and continue to widely market and promote the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks in the industry and to consumers. Plaintiffs' promotional efforts include—by way of example but not limitation—through substantial marketing and advertising on social media, Google Ads, Amazon Ads, online advertisements, and sponsoring events.

18. The Pluginz Keychains Trademarks (attached as Exhibit 1) are distinctive and identify the merchandise as goods from Plaintiffs. The registrations for the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks constitute prima facie evidence of their validity and of Plaintiffs' exclusive right to use those trademarks pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1057(b).

19. The Pluginz Keychains Trademarks qualify as famous marks, as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. §1125 (c)(1), and have been continuously used and never abandoned.

20. Plaintiffs have expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks. As a result, products bearing the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks are widely recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as being products sourced from Plaintiffs.

21. Plaintiffs are the owners and lawful assignees of all right, title, and interest in and to the Pluginz Keychains Patent (attached as Exhibit 2).

22. The Pluginz Keychains Products in many instances embody at least a portion of the design depicted in the Pluginz Keychains Patent.

THE DEFENDANTS

23. Defendants are individuals and business entities who, upon information and belief, reside mainly in the People's Republic of China or other foreign jurisdictions.

24. Defendants are merchants on online e-commerce platforms, including the Marketplace Platforms.

THE DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

25. The success of the Pluginz Keychains Products has resulted in significant infringement and counterfeiting.

26. Plaintiffs have identified numerous domain names linked to fully interactive websites and marketplace listings on platforms such as AliExpress, Amazon, DHgate, eBay, Etsy, Shein, Temu, and Walmart, including the Defendant Internet Stores, which were offering for sale, selling, and importing counterfeit Pluginz Keychains Products to consumers in this Judicial District and throughout the United States.

27. Defendants have persisted in creating such online marketplaces and Internet stores, like the Defendant Internet Stores. In fact, such online marketplaces and stores are estimated to receive tens of millions of visits per year and to generate over $135 billion in annual online sales. According to an intellectual property rights seizures statistics report issued by the United States Department of Homeland Security, the manufacturer's suggested retail price of goods seized by the U.S. government in fiscal year 2021 was over $3.3 billion. Internet websites like the Defendant Internet Stores are also estimated to contribute to tens of thousands of lost jobs for legitimate businesses and broader economic damages such as lost tax revenue every year.

28. On personal knowledge and belief, Defendants facilitate sales by designing the Defendant Internet Stores so that they appear to unknowing consumers to be authorized online retailers, outlet stores, or wholesalers selling genuine Pluginz Keychains Products.

29. Many of the Defendant Internet Stores look sophisticated and accept payment in U.S. dollars via credit cards, Western Union, and PayPal. Defendant Internet Stores often include images and design elements that make it very difficult for consumers to distinguish such counterfeit sites from an authorized website.

30. Defendants further perpetuate the illusion of legitimacy by offering “live 24/7” customer service and using indicia of authenticity and security that consumers have come to associate with authorized retailers, including the McAfee® Security, VeriSign®, Visa®, MasterCard®, and PayPal® logos.

31. Plaintiffs have not licensed or authorized Defendants to use the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks or Pluginz Keychains Patent, and none of the Defendants are authorized retailers of genuine Pluginz Keychains Products.

32. On personal knowledge and belief, Defendants deceive unknowing consumers by using the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks and/or Pluginz Keychains Patent without authorization within the product descriptions of their Defendant Internet Stores to attract customers, as well as embodied by the Counterfeit Products themselves.

33. On personal knowledge and belief, Defendants also deceive unknowing consumers by using the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks without authorization within the content, text, and/or meta tags of their websites to attract various search engines crawling the Internet looking for websites relevant to consumer searches for Pluginz Keychains Products. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants use other unauthorized search engine optimization (“SEO”) tactics and social media spamming so that the Defendant Internet Stores listings show up at or near the top of relevant search results and misdirect consumers searching for genuine Pluginz Keychains Products. Further, Defendants utilize similar illegitimate SEO tactics to propel new domain names to the top of search results after others are shut down. As such, Plaintiffs also seek to disable Defendant Internet Stores owned by Defendants that are the means by which the Defendants could continue to sell counterfeit Pluginz Keychains Products into this District.

34. On information and belief, Defendants go to great lengths to conceal their identities and often use multiple fictitious names and addresses to register and operate their massive network of Defendant Internet Stores.

35. For example, it is common practice for infringers to register their domain names and/or User Accounts with incomplete information, randomly typed letters, or omitted cities or states.

36. And many Defendant Internet Stores use privacy services that conceal the owners' identity and contact information. On personal knowledge and belief, Defendants regularly create new websites and online marketplace accounts on various platforms using the identities listed in Schedule A, as well as other unknown fictitious names and addresses.

37. On personal knowledge and belief, even though Defendants operate under multiple fictitious names, there are numerous similarities among the Defendant Internet Stores. For example, some of the Defendant marketplace websites have virtually identical layouts, even though different aliases were used to register the respective domain names.

38. In addition, the Counterfeit Products for sale in the Defendant Internet Stores bear similarities and indicia of being related to one another, suggesting that the Counterfeit Products were manufactured by and come from a common source and that, upon information and belief, Defendants are interrelated.

39. The Defendant Internet Stores also include other notable common features, including accepted payment methods, check-out methods, meta data, illegitimate SEO tactics, HTML user-defined variables, domain redirection, lack of contact information, identically or similarly priced items and volume sales discounts, similar hosting services, similar name servers, and the use of the same text and images.

40. In addition, Defendants in this case and defendants in other similar cases against online counterfeiters use a variety of other common tactics to evade enforcement efforts. For example, counterfeiters like Defendants will often register new online marketplace accounts under User Accounts once they receive notice of a lawsuit.²

41. Counterfeiters also often move website hosting to rogue servers located outside the United States once notice of a lawsuit is received. Rogue servers are notorious for ignoring take down demands sent by brand owners.³

42. Infringers also typically ship products in small quantities via international mail to minimize detection by U.S. Customs and Border Protection. A 2012 U.S. Customs and Border Protection report on seizure statistics indicated that the Internet has fueled “explosive growth” in the number of small packages of counterfeit goods shipped through the mail and express carriers.

43. Further, infringers such as Defendants typically operate multiple credit card merchant accounts and PayPal accounts behind layers of payment gateways so that they can continue operation in spite of Plaintiffs’ enforcement efforts.

44. On personal knowledge and belief, Defendants maintain off-shore bank accounts and regularly move funds from their PayPal accounts to off-shore bank accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court. Indeed, analysis of PayPal transaction logs from previous similar cases indicates that offshore counterfeiters regularly move funds from U.S.-based PayPal accounts to foreign-based bank accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court.

45. Defendants, without any authorization or license from Plaintiffs, have knowingly and willfully used and continue to use the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks and Pluginz Keychains Patent in connection with the advertisement, distribution, offering for sale, sale, and import of Counterfeit Products into the United States and Florida over the Internet.

46. Each Defendant Internet Store offers shipping to the United States, including Florida (in this Judicial District), and, on information and belief, each Defendant has offered to sell Counterfeit Products into the United States, including Florida (in this Judicial District), which is likely to cause and has caused confusion, mistake, and deception by and among consumers and is irreparably harming Plaintiffs.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND COUNTERFEITING (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

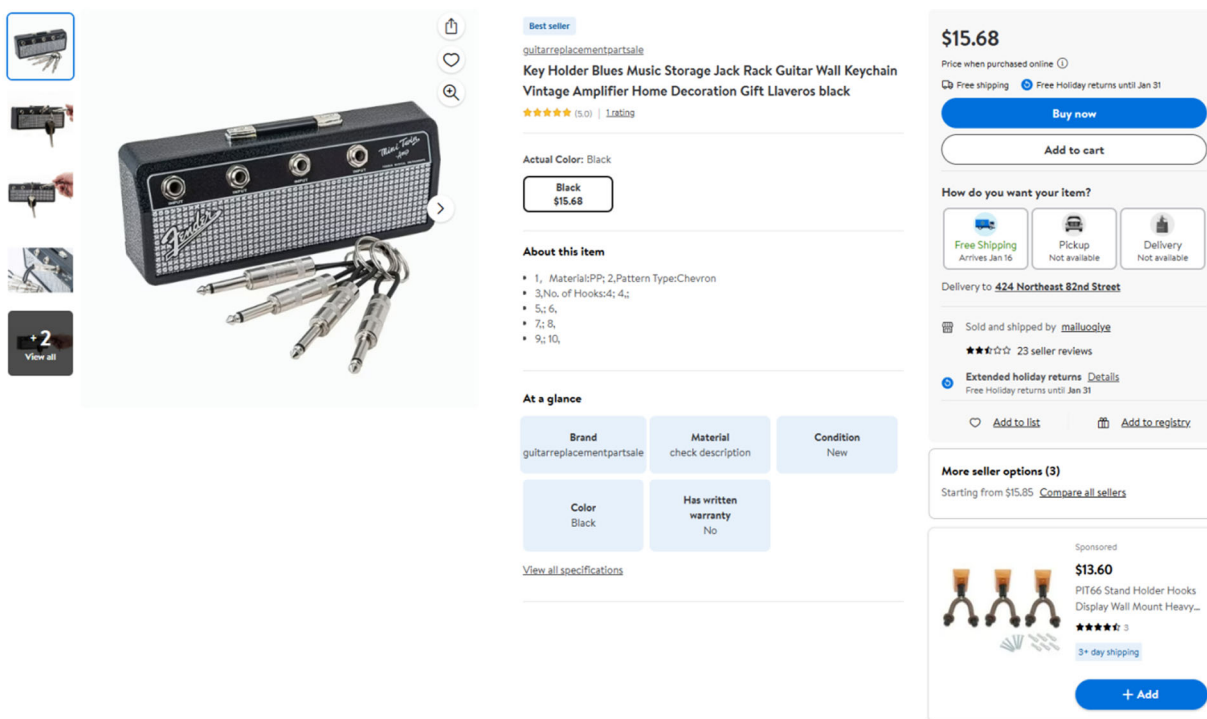

47. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference herein their allegations contained in paragraphs 1–46 of this Complaint.

48. This is a trademark infringement action against Defendants based on their unauthorized use in commerce of counterfeit imitations of the registered Pluginz Keychains Trademarks in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, and/or advertising of infringing goods. The Pluginz Keychains Trademarks are highly distinctive marks. Consumers have come to expect the highest quality from Plaintiffs' products provided under the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks.

49. Defendants have sold, offered to sell, marketed, distributed, and advertised, and are still selling, offering to sell, marketing, distributing, and advertising products in connection with the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks without Plaintiffs' permission.

50. Plaintiffs are the registered owners of the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks and official source of Pluginz Keychains Products. The United States Registrations for the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks (Exhibit 1) are in full force and effect. Upon information and belief, Defendants have knowledge of Plaintiffs’ rights in the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks and are willfully infringing and intentionally using counterfeits of the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks. Defendants’ willful, intentional, and unauthorized use of the Pluginz Keychains Trademarks is likely to cause and is causing confusion, mistake, and deception as to the origin and quality of the counterfeit goods among the general public.

Exemplary Counterfeit Product Sold on Defendant Internet Store Infringing on Plaintiffs’ Registered Trademarks⁴

51. Defendants’ activities constitute willful trademark infringement and counterfeiting under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1117.

52. The injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiffs have been directly and proximately caused by Defendants' wrongful reproduction, use, advertisement, promotion, offering to sell, and sale of counterfeit Pluginz Keychains Products.

53. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law, and, if Defendants' actions are not enjoined, Plaintiffs will continue to suffer irreparable harm to their reputation and the goodwill of their well-known Pluginz Keychains Trademarks.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
DESIGN PATENT INFRINGEMENT (35 U.S.C. § 271)

54. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference herein their allegations contained in paragraphs 1–46 of this Complaint.

55. Defendants are and have been making, using, selling, offering for sale, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use, without authority, Counterfeit Products that infringe directly and/or indirectly the Pluginz Keychains Patent.

56. For example, below is a comparison of figures from Plaintiffs' Pluginz Keychains Patent and images of one of Defendants' Counterfeit Products sold on a Defendant Internet Store.

57. Defendants’ activities constitute willful patent infringement under 35 U.S.C. § 271.

58. Defendants have infringed the Pluginz Keychains Patent through the aforesaid acts and will continue to do so unless enjoined by this Court. Defendants’ wrongful conduct has caused Plaintiffs to suffer irreparable harm resulting from the loss of their lawful patent rights to exclude others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, and importing the patented invention.

59. Plaintiffs are entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283.

60. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate for the infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §§ 284, 289, including Defendants’ profits.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

f. operating and/or hosting online marketplace accounts at the Defendant Internet Stores that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product infringing the Pluginz Keychains Patent.

3. Entry of an Order that AliExpress, Amazon, DHgate, eBay, Etsy, Shein, Temu, Walmart, and any other online marketplace account provider:

c. take all steps necessary to prevent links to the Defendant Internet Stores identified on Schedule A from displaying in search results, including, but not limited to, removing links to the Defendant Internet Stores from any search index.

4. 5. That Plaintiffs be awarded such damages as they shall prove at trial against Defendants that are adequate to compensate Plaintiffs for Defendants' infringement of the Pluginz

8. That Plaintiffs be awarded their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and

9. Award any and all other relief that this Court deems just and proper.
